Colonel Richard E. Gillespie, USA
Director of Foreign Intelligence
Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff
for Intelligence
Department of the Army
Washington, D. C. 20310

Dear Colonel Gillespie:

Thank you for your letter of 3 June concerning the intelligence production efforts of the [REDACTED] Detachment. Obviously I'm very pleased that the work of these reserve officers has merited such favorable comments.

25X1A

We share your interest in ensuring that the efforts of the Detachment continue and if possible expand. This is a very worthwhile program with two benefits; i.e., production of meaningful intelligence and training that challenges and enhances opportunities for our reservists.

Please be assured that we will make every effort to encourage new employees entering on board, as well as returnees from overseas who are reserve officers, to give serious consideration to participating in this project.

Sincerely,

John F. Blake

1. DD/Deputy Director for Administration		09 JUN 1977	3 Attached is a memorandum to you dated 3 June 1977 from Colonel Richard E. Gillespie, Director of Foreign Intelligence, ACSI, Department of the Army, in which he summarizes the efforts of our reservists since 1 September 1975 in producing meaningful intelligence for the Department of the Army. Regarding the last paragraph indicating that he would like to see the program expanded if possible, we are, on a continuing basis, introducing the program to new employees, returnees from overseas, etc., and encouraging them to consider participation in this substantive intelligence effort.
